

ried to Fred Smith also of Germany. There were born to this union 11 children, 6 sons, 5 daughters. Four sons died in infancy. One daughter (Lydia) died a few years ago while Brother McFaden ministered to them. The other four are living. Barbara married to Jos. Miller, Anna married to Urias M. Saylor, Doritta at home, single, cared for parents in old age. Amanda married to John Gary of the 17th Ward, Johnstown, Pa. Joel S. oldest son married to Sarah Bowman living in the neighborhood. F. F. the other son married to Julia Shaver living on the home farm. The further descendants are 20 grandchildren and 5 great grand-children. She and husband who survive her and upwards of 4 years her senior were born again at same time and baptized together at Meyersdale in 1851.

ROTHROCK—Samuel L. Rothrock died of hemorrhage of the lungs, July 31, 1899, aged 22 years, 5 months and 23 days. Samuel was the youngest of nine children. He was a beloved son and an ideal brother. He was converted in January, and had he had an opportunity would have united with the Brethren church. But he did the best he could and angels do no more. He has gone to meet our other loved ones; father, brother and sister in the home beyond the skies.

The Angel of Death came forth one day,
Sent from the throne of light
With arrow true and strong bow bent,
He winged to earth his flight.

HEGLER—Sarah I. Hegler was born in Ross county, Ohio, Sept. 15, 1831, departed this life at Fairview, Fayette county, Ohio, June 26, 1899, aged 67 years, 9 months and 11 days. She was united in marriage to Milton Hegler, Dec. 31, 1863, to which union there were born two sons and two daughters, all of whom survive her. She united with the Brethren church about 19 years ago, living a very worthy member during that time, always being good to the poor and needy. Her home was always open to the brethren and especially to the ministers. It was here that brother J. M. Tombaugh made his home for twelve years and at her funeral he said she had been a mother to him. The community has lost an excellent woman, the church an excellent worker, and the family a kind and devoted mother, but with her, life's work is done and she has entered into that rest that remains to the children of God, leaving a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss, her husband having preceded her some three years to the spirit land. Funeral services were held by brother J. M. Tombaugh and the writer to a large congregation.

ISAAC ROSS.

McSHIRLEY.—Carl Boyd, son of brother Clem and sister Mollie McShirley was born May 14, 1899, died Aug. 6, 1899, aged 2 months and 23 days.

"Like the meteor's flash across the sky,
He to our threshold came,
But a brighter light is in our hearts,
Since he to heaven has gone."

REPLOGLE—Samuel H., was born in Wayne county, Ind., July 12, 1836 and died Aug. 12, 1899, aged 63 years and 1 month. In early manhood he was married to Elizabeth Pfeiffer. Three children were born unto them, all of whom remain to mourn the loss of an affectionate father. His first wife died in the year 1874. Oct. 6, 1875, he was joined in marriage to Mary P. Bowman with whom he lived a kind and faithful husband until death. He espoused the Master's cause early in life and at the time of his death was a member of the Brethren church at Oakville, Delaware county, Ind. His life needs no commendation, being a living epistle known and read of all men. His daily deportment was a continued sermon in favor of righteousness, goodness and truth and every Christian virtue. He is gone but his example is still with us. He being dead yet speaketh. Precious in the eyes of the Lord is the death of his saints.
